The Next Industrial Revolution

INTERMACH

The 39th INTERMACH presents the integration of advanced technology solutions in manufacturing processes across the value chain. Technologies such as Industry 4.0, AI, Industrial IoT, AR/VR, Advanced Robotics, Automations, 3D Printing, Cloud and Big Data analytics are transforming the manufacturing industry in a significant way.

INTERMACH is ASEAN's Leading International Industrial Machinery and Subcontracting Exhibition and features the latest advanced machinery, equipment, and digital devices & solutions in facilitating the manufacturing transformation from some of the world's leading brands. The show covers a wide variety of manufacturing industries - especially those in Automotive, Electronics, Electric, Construction, Medical devices, Furniture and Agriculture. The show is well known in the industry to provide real business opportunities to exhibiting companies. It is also well known to attract top decision makers and quality buyers that can make purchase decisions on the spot. No other show can match this outstanding performance!

The 2023 edition will be included the special new exhibition features - Advanced Metrology & Testing and Plastic & Rubber - to further shine a spotlight on these sectors and to offer a more comprehensive value chain of the manufacturing industry including :

SHEET METAL

MACHINE TOOLS

WELDING

PLASTIC & RUBBER

AUTOMATION & ROBOTICS

ADDITIVE MANUFACTURING & SOFTWARE

ADVANCED METROLOGY & TESTING

SUBCON THAILAND

Co-Located with: SUBCON Thailand 2023

The 2023 show, it provides a special business platform with opportunities in business expansion and linkage between leading part-makers in electrical components; automotive machinery; medical equipment and more. Participants met with global industrial part-buyers at the show. The only event co-organised by Informa Markets (Thailand), the Thailand Board of Investment (BOI) along with Thailand's Subcontracting Promotions Association, last year's event saw 1,982 business partnerships created, which accounted for more than 7,222 million Baht in business value. The show has proved to be an ideal target for buyers and provided special opportunities for INTERMACH and MTA Asia exhibitors to present their products to quality buyers from ASEAN and the world.
